

Budgie Hues

You check the letterbox
There's an invitation
Written in budgie language
Asking for your participation

Get on your feathers
Get on your shoes
You're going to a party
Wearing Budgie hues

You want to dance
So you run through the door
And then you rush
Onto the wild dance floor

You will sing
You will tweet
You will move
With your tiny feet

You've finished the last dance
It's late at night
You're out of the building
And walking joyfully in the moonlight
